Name: Berkeley Journal of Gender, Law & Justice (BGLJ)

Website: <http://www.boalt.org/bwlj/>

Publisher: Boalt Hall School of Law, University of California Berkeley

Language(s): English

Description:

The Berkeley Journal of Gender, Law & Justice, a continuation of Berkeley Women's Law Journal, was founded in 1984 by a group of Boalt Hall students who came together with a vision of "preserving our voices of diversity and maintaining our commitment to social change within the often-stifling confines of a law school environment." It addresses issues concerning gender in combination with one or more axes of subordination, including, but not limited to, race, class, sexual orientation, and disability. Mainly addressing human rights, the justice and penal system, and violence against women, BGLJ currently publishes once a year in spring. Selected articles are available on Westlaw and LexisNexis.
